

2020-21 Year in Review

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN
College of Agriculture and Bioresources
AGBIO.USASK.CA

Adapting to change in extraordinary times, the College of Agriculture and Bioresources is growing the future.

1,703

Students

1,385

Undergrad

318

Graduate

$33.6
million

New awarded research funding

42,000

Plants growing in the Agriculture
Greenhouses

315

Staff

80

Faculty

$1.5
million

Scholarships, bursaries, awards

Undergraduate students by program

Bachelor of Science, Agriculture 728

Bachelor of Science, Agribusiness 247

Bachelor of Science,
Animal Bioscience 229

Bachelor of Science,
Renewable Resource Management 43

Diploma in Agribusiness 54

Diploma in Agronomy 58

Kanawayihetaytan Askiy Program 26

16

New crop varieties licensed by the Crop Development
Centre

Bachelor of Science, Agriculture students by major

Agricultural Biology 17

Agricultural Economics 11

Agronomy 199

Animal Science 159

Applied Plant Ecology 12

Crop Science 43

Environmental Science 61

Food and Bioproduct Sciences 22

Horticulture Science 44

Soil Science 17

Undeclared 143

25

Virtual coffee rows
held for students to connect during the pandemic