

Student Information

Please append signed endorsements from the student supervisor and department graduate chair, the offer letter from the prospective employer, and minutes from a recent advisory committee meeting indicating committee approval. Details and complete application requirements can be found at https://agbio.usask.ca/programs/graduate-programs.php#WorkIntegratedLearningConcentration.

Name: Student Number: Date:

Program: [] Master's [] PhD Supervisor(s):
[] Agricultural Economics [] Applied Economics [] Animal and Poultry Science
[] Food Science [] Applied Microbiology [] Plant Sciences
[] Soil Science Program start date:

Proposed Workplace

Company/business name: Department/Unit (if applicable):

Supervisor name: Position at company:

Phone number: Email address:

Start date: [] January [] May [] September Length of work period (months): [] Four (4)
[] Eight (8) [] Twelve (12; PhD students only)

Rationale

Please provide a brief rationale for participating in this work integrated learning concentration. Include specific examples of skills and/or benefits that you expect to obtain from this experience.

Signatures

Student: Supervisor: Graduate chair: